C-14 Interview with an MP

Interview with Liberal MP for Kitchener Centre Raj Saini re. Life Issues Abortion and Euthanasia

Interviewers: Bill and Odessa
Barrett, Jane Richard

Question: Would you be willing to put any limitations on Abortion? (i.e. only in the first two trimesters) At this moment there are no limitations. Answer: "I am not concerned about that."

Euthanasia - We the interviewers believe it is always wrong. God is the author of life...."Thou shall not kill." BILL - C14 proposed by the Liberal Government is going to allow Euthanasia under certain circumstances.

We want to know what safeguards should be put in place to protect vulnerable individuals (the disabled, the sick or the dying who don't want to be killed). We want to know that the conscience rights for healthcare workers and institutions will be respected. (i.e. Christian Hospitals whose beliefs don't permit people to be Euthanized)

Question: Did you know about the long tradition in the Liberal Party of letting the MP's vote according to their conscience on moral issues?

Answer: He said he did not know that.

In the recent past Justin Trudeau changed that by forcing Liberal MP's to vote for Abortion, even if it was against their conscience to do so. Since that change, a long Liberal tradition had crossed a line. We told Mr. Saini that this action was dictatorial. He tried to say that the Liberals are allowed to change their policy. If voters do not like it, they can vote for another party. He said that the people who voted Liberal did so because they agreed with the Liberal's Abortion Policy.

Question: When you vote for a party does that mean you agree with all of their policies?

Answer: NO! On balance you vote for this party because you like some of their policies, but rarely all of them. So in this Mr. Saini was not telling the truth. The reason the Liberals (and other parties) allowed MP's to vote their conscience on moral issues for over a 100 years was because it was thought to be wrong to ask a man/woman to violate their conscience. Why?

If you pressured someone to violate their conscience, to vote in favour of something they believed was really wrong, then you bend or break their conscience. It is not as Saini says just "a change in policy". Then it becomes a totally different thing all together. This is changing the very nature of the men and women you want to represent us as your MP's.

We discussed a very good article on this by Barbara Kay in the June 8, 2016 edition of the National Post. I highly recommend it. She talked about Bill C-14, the Liberal Government's Bill on Euthanasia. She referenced an article by Andrew Coyne from the week before. Coyne referenced a new book titled "It's not that Simple: Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide Today", by Palliative Care researchers Ian Gentles and Jean Echlin. This book is available at the KPL and in book stores.

In Kay's article she mentions abuses that have occurred more and more in Belgium and Holland as time went on. Saini responded that as a Pharmacist, I know that the doctors and pharmacists in this country are good and will do the right thing. We were all in shock. We have read recently about a doctor who was put in jail for sexually abusing women patients while they were anaesthetized. Saini's statement was absurd, thrown at us as a justification for the lack of safeguards against abuse in the Liberal Bill C-14 concerning Euthanasia.

Jane questioned him over some of his statements. He got very loud and talked over her, just repeating why he thought this was such a good Bill.

I have to say the three of us left very exasperated with Saini's: not listening, talking over us, telling us to vote for somebody else. His tone seemed condescending. I thought that as an MP, he is supposed to be a servant to the public and listen to them.

CONTRACEPTION Cracking the Myths

We enjoyed a powerpoint presentation at Club Willows for the KW RTL Annual General Meeting and gave away 20 CDs of Contraception Cracking the Myths along with much more. If you would like a copy please call the office.

Pauline Witzel told us about her experience with Natural Family Planning:

"My husband Chris, and I have been married for almost 10 years now, and are blessed to have 5 children. During our time dating we had a desire to understand the Catholic Church's teachings on family life and was introduced to the Theology of the Body - a teaching from St. John Paul II which was critical in helping us to understand the beauty of the Church's teaching on sexuality and more specifically on Natural Family Planning.

It was through this teaching that we came to understand how we are to image Christ's love through the living out of our wedding vows. (Continued p. 3 Natural Family Planning)

Natural Family Planning NFP

(Continued from Contraception Cracking the Myths p. 2) Marriage is not only a contract between a man and a woman, but a sacred covenant. God created marriage to image and participate in his own covenant with his people. This marriage covenant call spouses to share in the free, total, faithful and fruitful love of God that Christ demonstrated on the Cross as he gave his body to his bride the Church! We came to see my fertility as a gift and that cannot be separated from who I am. Using NFP, we feel, is respecting God's plan for fertility and working with God using the natural cycles he created in the woman's body. There is no question that the periodic abstinence required by NFP can be difficult. Practicing NFP takes self-control, trust in one's spouse, trust in God, honest and open communication, and a willingness to sacrifice for each other. But love is not harmed by these things. Love IS these things. Because practicing NFP nurtures some of the very virtues that make for a successful marriage, far from damaging marriage, I believe it encourages couples to grow closer in unity!"

Clearly Natural Family Planning has great benefits to offer couples to find fullness of love in their marriage. At the KW RTL Office we have several books available and can provide information on how to find organizations to help those from any religious denomination find pathways from contraception to Natural Family Planning. ### Promoting the Sanctity of Life from Conception to Natural Death

I will not give a lethal drug to anyone if I am asked, not will I advise such a plan; and similarly I will not give a woman a pessary to cause an abortion. Hippocratic Oath

KW Right to Life began 44 years ago with its founding members Dr. Hart Bezner, a physicist and his wife Marilyn a registered nurse. They responded to the legalization of abortion in 1969 under Pierre Elliot Trudeau's Liberal Government of Canada by founding a large segment of like minded people; KW Right to Life, who believed that abortion is wrong on every level.

Today's C-14 legalizing assisted suicide by the current government under Liberal Justin Trudeau, Pierre's son, is looming. Will this "evolution" serve to better individuals and-Canada or will it serve better those who believe in themselves as the highest power?
